

THE FEDERAL CIRCUIT BAR ASSOCIATION® AND THE APPELLATE PROJECT PRESENT:

CLERKING AT THE FEDERAL CIRCUIT: A CONVERSATION WITH RECENT FEDERAL CIRCUIT LAW CLERKS

FEATURED SPEAKERS

MODERATOR

Andrew Trask,
Partner,
Williams & Connolly LLP

PANELIST

Rashmi Borah,
Attorney Advisor,
Office of General Counsel,
U.S. International Trade
Commission

PANELIST

Christie Corn,
Associate,
Williams & Connolly LLP

PANELIST

Jessica Lam,
Senior IP Counsel,
Commercial IP, Novartis

SUMMARY: This panel brings together several practicing attorneys who recently served as law clerks at the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit for an informal conversation about non-confidential aspects of their clerkship experiences. The panelists will discuss topics such as their decision to clerk, tips for applying to clerkships, the skills needed to serve as a Federal Circuit law clerk, the typical day-to-day tasks of a law clerk at the Federal Circuit, and how the clerkship experience has been useful in their subsequent roles. This program is designed for law students and junior professionals interested in learning more about clerking.

COMPLIMENTARY OFFER: There is no cost to attend this webcast, but all attendees must pre-register in advance. Additionally, law students who register for this event will receive complimentary FCBA Student Memberships, which are valid until one year after graduation.

The Federal Circuit Bar Association® is also offering complimentary FCBA Memberships to The Appellate Project Members who attend this webcast. The FBCA will not be offering CLE credit for this program.

Register Here: http://myfcba.fedcirbar.org/NC__Event?id=a0fQj000002ubLVIAY

SEPTEMBER 10, 2025 | 3:00 PM – 4:00 PM ET